THE PARTING GLASS

Of all the money that e'er I had, I spent it in good company
And all the harm I've ever done, alas it was to none but me
And all I've done for want of wit, to mem'ry now I can't recall
So fill to me the parting glass
Good night and joy be to you all

So fill to me the parting glass
And drink a health whate'er befall,
And gently rise and softly call
Good night and joy be to you all

Of all the comrades that e'er I had, they're sorry for my going away
And all the sweethearts that e'er I had, they'd wish me one more day to stay
But since it falls unto my lot, that I should rise and you should not
I gently rise and softly call
Good night and joy be to you all

If I had money enough to spend, and leisure time to sit awhile
There is a fair maid in this town, that sorely has my heart beguiled.
Her rosy cheeks and ruby lips, I own she has my heart in thrall
Then fill to me the parting glass
Good night and joy be with you all.

A man may drink and not be drunk, a man may fight and not be slain
A man may court a pretty girl, and perhaps be welcomed back again
But since it has so ought to be, by a time to rise and a time to fall
Come fill to me the parting glass
Good night and joy be with you all
Good night and joy be with you all
